distance of 165 feet-in fact, it reaches nearly entirely through the city. These sterling gentlemen and excellent merchants, have now on hand one of the largest stocks of furniture ever brought to Waco, comprising everything, and every style and quality of goods in their line of business. The styles are very elegant and their prices very reasor able. Their stock of Sash, Doors and Binds is immerse and they offer great inducements to cash customers. Wall Paper, Shader, Canvas French and Rustic. They have a full line of Infant's Carriages. Indeed it would consume too much space to mention any considerable portion of this large stock. The house is well worth a visit if only to see their i mmense stock and elegant styles.

COMMENCEMENT AT TEHUACANA:--Cemsencements are now the order of the day We are informed by a friend just from Tehuscans, that the Commencement Exercises of Trinity University under supervision of C. P. Church, terminated the 18th inst, in a manner highly creditable to all participants. Aside from the examination of classes, there was a series of entertainments given by the literary reciesies, and graduating class, of evenings for one week. The chapel, that seats about one thousand, was densely crowdpreciative audiences which was highly entertained by the essays and original speeches of the young gentlemen and ladies. Seven young ladies and one gentleman graduated in the School of Arts, and four young men from the Law School. The University matriculated four hundred and twenty students during the year, which speaks remarkably well for an institution of five years, in a village that itselt, has been founded since the establish ment of the Institution.

Letter From Belton,

Belton, Texas, June 15,
Belton Examiner:

Ex-Treasurer G. W. Honey is the presiding elder of the negro Methodist church at this place. He came up on Saturday to attend the Quarterly Meeting, I think that he presched to the negroes Saturday night and Sunday at 11 a.m. Sunday morning, he visited the Sunday-school at the white Methodist church, and took his seat with the Bible class. It seems that some of the young ladies of the class, did not like this, and moved to other pews. Some of the boys who saw this, decided that they would let Mr. Honey know that he was not very highly appreciated by the whites here, and so that night (Sunday), hey watched their chance, caught the Reverent ex-Treasurer as he was returning to his note, took him up No.an Creek out of town, and gave him a ducking. I have not seen able to learn who any of the parties were that were engaged in this, to say the east, very nugentlemanly act; or how it got to be noised about.

Mr. Honey left this morning, so I understand, for Austin, Yours, Mem. BELTON, TEXAS, June 15,

One by one the "old boys fall." The subject of the above bries telegraphic flash of death was well known to the press of "Texas. More than once has his caustic pen brought the writhe of contortion to those, who, particeps criminis, were of those whose nefrious votes and bribestuking (consistency (?) prompted them to say "yea." The manly exposition, by Geo. W. Reynolds, of the International bond fraud, and all its kindred "acts" will never be fergotten by the unpredjudiced readers of the Houston Age, the San Antonic Herald, Jefferson Democrat, and other taunch Democratic journals.
